Article II. MSU Panhellenic Diversity, Equality, and Inclusion Chair

Section 1. Title and Incorporation.

The Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion chair is a position for all Michigan State University (MSU) Panhellenic. The DEI Chair must be delegated within each chapter. Chapters shall be responsible for incorporation of the DEI chairman's role in accordance with the individual Chapter's bylaws.

Section 2. History.

The Panhellenic Council has a long history of exclusion. Panhellenic sororities, which are part of the National Panhellenic Conference (NPC), were created by and for privileged white women, and have excluded women who identify otherwise for many years. As a Panhellenic community, we must recognize and change all systems and norms that exclude women of all races, genders, ethnicities, and religions. It is our responsibility and mission to continue to acknowledge the systemic barriers that deter women of all identities from joining our community. We hope to make the Panhellenic Council an inclusive place for anyone who seeks membership within our community.

Section 3. Purpose.

The DEI Committee will be made up of the 14 DEI Chairs from each of the 14 Panhellenic Chapters. The goal of this committee will be to:

- A. Seek to create appropriate and respectful communication between the four FSL Councils regarding the equal representation and inclusion of all races, gender identification, sexual orientation, and religious beliefs.
- B. Facilitate conversations within their chapter around the support of minoritized students and members of color within the FSL community and all those stigmatized or excluded by the Panhellenic Council in the past.

Section 4. Process.

Each chapter shall appoint one member as the DEI Chair to represent them in this committee. The Panhellenic Vice President of Internal Relations will facilitate this committee. Each year, the members of the committee will elect one of the chapter DEI chairs to be the Head Chair of the committee.

Section 5. Training.

A mandatory orientation training will be facilitated at the beginning of the DEI Chairs term. The VP of Internal Relations should have at least one meeting a month with the DEI Committee. As part of the training, the DEI Representative of the individual Panhellenic chapters will receive contact information and resources. This will assist and support the DEI Chairperson throughout their term as needed in order to continue the learning and education needed to facilitate conversations and growth within their own chapters.

Article III. The Sexual Misconduct Liaison (SALi)

Section 1. Title and Incorporation.

The Sexual Misconduct Liaison (SALi), previously known as “Sally,” is a position for all Michigan State University (MSU) Panhellenic.
